The 1 and 6 Infantry Regiments

1. As of May 1952, the 1 and 6 Infantry Regiments were stationed in Sofia. They occupied two barracks on Patriarkh Eftimi Streets and were transferred to wooden barracks in the northeastern outskirts of the city. At present the two former barracks are used as State warehouses.

Military School, Sofia

2. A school for reserve officers and regular Army cadets is located in the southwestern outskirts of Sofia on the right side of the road to Pernik (N 42-36, E 23-03). It consists of the following buildings:
 - a. Two masonry buildings three stories high, dimensions about 150 by 50 meters, used as living quarters and classrooms;
 - b. One masonry building about 50 by 20 meters in size, used as a kitchen and food storehouse; and
 - c. One building similar to the preceding one, used as a mess hall.
3. Two guards (one for each of the masonry buildings) are posted at the main entrance. They are armed with rifles of an unidentified type.
4. all infantry officers in the reserves are required to attend a refresher course of two months duration. The courses are continuous, with an interval of seven or eight days between courses.
5. The cadets school occupies one of the two masonry buildings mentioned in paragraph 4a above. It has an enrollment of about 400 students. Courses last two years. At
